DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-3, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Jeong (2006/026227).

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Regarding claim 1, Jeong shows a transport stream generating means (311-313), a broadcasting transport format transforming means (441), a broadcasting multiplexing means (314 or 444), a modulating/up-converting means (317), and a high power amplifying means (317). It should be noted that the digital audio broadcasting system inherently includes the modulating/up-converting means and the high power amplifying means as claimed.

Regarding claim 2, the MPEG-4 encoders (311,312) are intended to gather video and audio data from video sources such as a television tuner, a DVD player, a VCR player, a set top box, etc..

Regarding claim 3, Jeong inherently includes a propriety line for feeding the video signal.

Regarding claim 13, see rejections above.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 4-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Horn (2004/0096003) shows a digital radio receiver.
